I respectfully nominate Bob Cardaneo to the Cadets Hall of Fame.

There are a number of reasons I believe Bob deserves to be in the Cadets Hall of Fame.

They are enumerated below:

1). Bob Cardaneo marched in the Garfield Cadets in 1967 and 1968. He was a french horn player that, in 1967, was featured in a horn trio.

2). Bob Cardaneo volunteered to teach the Cadet Plebes from 1970 through 1977. Eight years of voluntary (no pay) instructional service to the Cadets feeder organization is extremely impressive and is alone worthy of consideration for induction into the Cadets HoF.

3). Bob instructed the Cadets horn line in 1975. He did an excellent job. I personally can vouch for this as a horn player that year.

4). In 1977, the Garfield Cadets endeavored in a trendsetting program which included having the Color Guard play bugles at the conclusion of 'I Don't Know How To Love Him'.

Frank Dorrite, the Cadets Brass Arranger and Caption Head asked Bob Cardaneo to join the Cadets brass staff to 'teach' the color guard how to play the horn and specifically, how to play the music to 'I Don't Know How To Love Him'.

Bob started these instructions in the winter of 1976-1977 and successfully taught approximately 30 members of the guard, that had never played a horn instrument prior to his instructions, to play with confidence and precision.

The effects created by Bob's expert brass instruction resulted in one of the most memorable visual and musical effects in the drum corps activity. 45 years later and drum corps fans still talk about the wall of sound created by the 1977 Cadets.

In addition to these Cadet accomplishments, Bob also taught a number of other drum corps and high school bands.

Bob is also a highly acclaimed judge in the DCI and DCA arenas. Bob judging career started in 1969 and continued through 2010 (41 years).

Also, Bob served as a member of the Bushwackers Drum Corps Board of Directors from 2015-2018.

Finally.....

In 2015, Bob Cardaneo was inducted into the New Jersey Drum Corps Hall of Fame.

In 2008, Bob Cardaneo was inducted into the World Drum Corps Hall of Fame.

With this impressive resume, I am proud to nominate Bob Cardaneo to the Cadets Hall of Fame.
