To the Cadets Hall of Fame Committee:

I am writing to nominate Eric Sabach to The Cadets Hall of Fame. As a member, staff member, and alumnus, his service and generosity to The Cadets have been profound and I believe him to be a worthy candidate for The Cadets Hall of Fame.

As a member of the corps, Eric's contributed greatly to the corps' success during the formative championship years. He excelled as a member of the Garfield Cadets, so much so that he was personally asked by George Zingali and Mark Sylvester to serve as a staff member for the newly founded Star of Indiana in 1985. Eric's knowledge of the visual arts went well beyond his years and he is one of the finest visual instructors I have seen in my forty year career in drum corps.

The Cadets have recently been on a journey of rediscovery and growth. Eric has been very involved in the recent and continuing evolution of The Cadets. As an alumnus, Eric is devoted to building relationships with current members and colleagues and has been selfless with his time and resources in service to The Cadets. On a personal level, Eric frequently spends time with The Cadets members and staff on the road. Whether it be sharing the history of the corps through storytelling, doing a needed errand for a member or staff person, volunteering, or donating to the Maroon & Gold alumni club, Eric Sabach continues to find ways to personally serve the corps and its members. On a professional level, Eric donates vital resources to The Cadets through his role as an alumnus and as an expert in the pageantry arts service industry. Our newest production in 2021 will benefit greatly from his donated resources and products as Eric continues to serve the corps and its members to this day.

It is with pride and without hesitation that I nominate Eric Sabach as a member of the Class of 2021 Cadets Hall of Fame. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,
