to me

Dear HOF Committee,

If you have had anything at all to do with The Cadets, you already know that Eric Sabach absolutely should be in the Cadets Hall of Fame. There is no facet of the Cadets that has not directly or indirectly been touched and made better because of Eric. I did not get to march with Eric, but I DID get to learn from him. As I understand it, he sacrificed his age-out year to go teach and brand new little corps from nowhere Indiana full of good-intentioned band kids that really had no clue what they...we...were doing. He willingly did not march one of the most ground-breaking shows in the history of drum corps, Garfield 1985, to teach Star of Indiana 1985. We were the first corps in history to make Finals in their first year of competition and this was, in part, due to having Eric on staff. I also had the opportunity to benefit from Eric by marching Garfield 87, 88, and 89 and I think nearly daily about lessons that I learned in Garfield that is a result of those that came before me.

The number of young adults who have benefitted from his teaching, writing, judging, and the multiple unknown good deeds he has done is truly mind-boggling. I can not prove this, but I just KNOW he gives a ton of money to people who are less fortunate than he is because he honestly cares and has that good of a heart and spirit.

I whole heartedly recommend and support Eric Sabach's induction into the Cadets Hall of Fame.

Please call me should you have any questions.
